We are seeking nominations for Gulfshore Life's 2006 Men & Women of the Year. As a valued reader, your insight is a crucial part of our selection process. We are looking for influential and inspiring men and women who, whether through their work, leadership, innovation or community service, have made a significant contribution to Southwest Florida this year. We will honor our Men & Women of the Year at a special event held in November 2006.

The categories listed are meant to help guide you in the selection process; however, do not hesitate to add other names/categories. Each category may have multiple nominees, and space is available for your comments. (While comments are not required, they do help us in the selection process.)

The final selection will take place in May and our winners will be featured in an upcoming issue of Gulfshore Life.

We appreciate your time and effort in helping to select our 2006 Men & Women of the Year. If you have any questions, please call Gulfshore Life, publisher Lynne Groth at 239-352-1214.
